

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Entry Submission

- Please ensure that you answer each section of the Online Entry Form.
- A maximum of three supporting documents can be submitted, such as images, video, brochures, media releases and letters of recommendation.

Condition of Entry

- Applications must be received by 5pm Thursday 12 June 2017.
- The project must have been conducted in South East Queensland which includes the area from the Queensland/New South Wales border, north to Noosa and west to the Great Dividing Range.
- The project must have produced results between 1 January and 31 December 2016.
- Entries for the Lifetime Achievement Award must show a contribution and dedication to waterway protection over a minimum of three years, with a demonstrated portion of volunteer commitment.
- Entries for the Junior Environment Champion Award must show a contribution and dedication to the protection of natural assets over a period of more than one year.
- Past entrants and winners are eligible to reapply in 2017, provided their submission relates to work conducted between 1 January and 31 December 2016. Past winners of the Waterways Champion Award are not able to reapply for the Lifetime Achievement Award.
- Information and images contained in the application or supplied as video may be reproduced in Healthy Land and Water's promotion and publicity materials.
- Entries and all supporting documents will not be returned to entrants.
- Entries are judged by an independent panel of industry experts and their decision is final.
- Individuals and entrants in the government award category are not eligible for the Minister's Grand Prize.
- All finalists determined by the judging panel will be eligible for the People's Choice Award.
- A project may be entered in multiple categories but it will only be recognised as a finalist in one category.
- Healthy Land and Water and the judging panel reserve the right to determine which category the entry will be recognised under.
- Healthy Land and Water reserve the right to amend these conditions of entry in administering these awards.

